

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, No. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

Whole No. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and those of Death and Money
Orders payable to

REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOWMAN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet its quiet hours of peace,
Ours of Sabbath rest to be—

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me—
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spread its precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt prosper," He hath said—
He, whose word can us to be made.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving Father above and here,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that heard the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fastened, and said it, and a book of remembrance was written before him: for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name."—Mal. 3: 16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY Wm. E. CURRIE.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a zealous worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Ich kann nicht predigen

William Miller

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an eagerness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14:12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

WHOLE NO. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR (TEN NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

ADVERTISEMENTS, and more of Books and Manuscripts, sent to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOWMAN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest,
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of peace,
Ours of Sabbath rest to be—

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me—
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads his precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken—
He, whose word can us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and-forever more and more,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Thus they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fastened, and held it, and a book of remembrance was written before him of them that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name."—Mal. 3:16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY Wm. E. CURRIE.

"Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a manly worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was uncontrollable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Zweipfünder wird zum Sechsfüßler

William Farnsworth

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an eagerness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his heaven, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATLICK CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

WHOLE NO. 172.

The Review and Herald.

Published by the
Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and those of Death and Money
Orders payable to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BATES, M.D.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Sign of Sabbath to us rest.

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spread its precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Thus they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord heareth, and heedeth it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Mal. 3: 16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. E. W. CURTIS.

"Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the house. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept in trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a zealous worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Mäßigkeitshotschaffler hält die Mannschaft zusammen

Captain Bates

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an experience and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his heaven, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1888

WHOLE No. 172.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED BY WEEKLY

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

ADVERTISEMENTS, and more of Books and Manuscripts, please to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOWMAN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Ours of Sabbath to be rest?

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads his precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"They say that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord heareth, and heed it, and a book of remembrance was written before him: for them that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Mal. 3: 16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. E. W. CURTIS.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we died with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a noble worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Noch kilometerweit deutlich zu hören

Ellen G. White

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an earnestness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The earnestness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, No. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

Whole No. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED BY WEEKLY

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and those of Death and Money
Orders payable to

REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOYDWIN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Ours of Sabbath be 'or to rest?

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me -
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Says his precious covenant right:
"Thou shalt prosper," He hath said,
He, whose word can us 'or to lead.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and-erest care and love,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fortified, and builded it, and a bank of righteousness was without walls: for he that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name." -Psalm 127

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY Wm. E. CURRIE.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to the trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a zealous worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Ich will nicht gehen

James White

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an earnestness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The earnestness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14:12

VOL. 43, No. 31.

WATLICK CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

Whole No. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

EST. BY W. W. WOODS, 1842

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and those of Great Britain and Europe order payable to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOYDWIN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet its quiet hours of peace,
Sign of Sabbath to us to rest.

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads its precious mercies right;
"Thou shalt prosper," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can us to us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fortified, and lifted up, and a host of reinforcements was without number: but they that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Matt. 1:19

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. W. WOODS.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the house. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a noble worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was uncontrollable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Gott ließ sie nicht untergehen

Hiram Edson

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an experience and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his harvest, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, No. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1888

Whole No. 172.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Orders on remittance, and bills of exchange and money orders payable to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOWMAN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Ours of Sabbath rest or no rest?

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spread its precious mercies right;
"Thou shalt prosper," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can us or be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving Father above and here,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that heard the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fastened, and held it, and a book of remembrance was written before him: for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Mal. 4: 16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY Wm. E. CURRIE.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept in trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a noble worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Sieben Prediger hören Loughborough

John Loughborough

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an experience and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect upon, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14:12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATLIE CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1884

WHOLE No. 172.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED BY WEEKLY

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR (TEN NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

ADVERTISEMENTS, and more of Books and Manuscripts, apply to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOWMAN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet its quiet hours of peace,
Ours of Sabbath rest to be—

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me—
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Says his precious commandment;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath said,
No, whose word can we or be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Thus say that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord answered, and said, I, and a host of angels were with me, saying, I will be with thee, and thou shalt be with me."—Ezek. 1:10

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. E. W. CURTIS.

"Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept in trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a noble worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Erste STA-Missionare segeln in die Schweiz

J. N. Andrews

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an eagerness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

WHOLE NO. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED BY WEEKLY

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Orders on remittance, and bills of exchange and money orders payable to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOYDWIN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet its quiet hours of peace,
Ours of Sabbath to be rest?

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me—
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads its precious mercies right;
"Thou shalt prosper," He hath spoken—
He, whose word can us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving Father above and here,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Thus they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fastened, and held it, and a book of remembrance was written before him of them that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name."—Ezek. 13: 9

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY Wm. E. CURRIE.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a zealous worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Herausgeber, Dichter und Erfinder

Ariah Smith

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an eagerness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his heaven, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

WHOLE NO. 172.

The Review and Herald.

EST. BY MESSRS. G. & O. S.

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (50 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and those of Death and Money
Orders payable to

REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOSTON, JR.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator bless.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Ours of Sabbath to be rest?

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spread its precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can us 'er be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord hearkened, and said: I, and a book of remembrance was written before him: for them that feared the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Mal. 3: 16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. E. G. CURRIE.

"Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to be trusted by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a zealous worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Es war halt ein Fehler

Annie Smith

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an experience and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect upon, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his harvest, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14:12

VOL. 43, No. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

Whole No. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and more of Books and Manuscripts apply to
REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BYINGTON.

Hail Sabbath! Day of rest,
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Ours of Sabbath rest to rest.

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads his precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can no man break.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving Father above and there,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fortified, and lifted up, and a host of righteousness was written before him: for they that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Mal. 3:16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. E. W. CURTIS.

"Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a manly worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Byington wird erster Präsident der Generalkonferenz

John Byington

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an eagerness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect upon, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his heaven, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14: 12

VOL. 43, No. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

Whole No. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR (10 NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

Admission on commutation, and those of Death and Money
Orders payable to

REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOWMAN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Sign of Sabbath to us to rest.

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me —
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads his precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken —
He, whose word can us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Then they that loved the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord fortified, and builded it, and a bank of righteousness was within, saying: thus he that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name." — Job 1: 19

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY Wm. E. CURRIE.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a manly worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Traktat- und Missionsgesellschaft organisiert

Stephen Haskell

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an eagerness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The consciousness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly

Advent Review

AND SABBATH HERALD.

"Here is the patience of the Saints: Here are they that keep the commandments of God and the Faith of Jesus." Rev. 14:12

VOL. 43, NO. 31.

WATILL CREEK, MICH., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1889

WHOLE NO. 1792.

The Review and Herald.

ISSUED WEEKLY BY THE

Sabbath Day Adventist Publishing Association,
Battle Creek, Michigan.

FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR (TEN NUMBERS) IN ADVANCE

ADVERTISEMENTS, and more of Books and Manuscripts, apply to

REVIEW AND HERALD, Battle Creek, Mich.

THE SABBATH

BY F. A. BOYDWIN.

Holy Sabbath! Day of rest,
By our great Creator blest.
Sweet his quiet hours of rest,
Ours of Sabbath rest to rest?

He who made the earth and sea,
Who created you and me—
Who devised salvation's plan,
He, the Sabbath made for man.

"Call the Sabbath a delight,"
Spreads his precious commandment right;
"Thou shalt respect," He hath spoken—
He, whose word can us to be broken.

Lord, we thank thee, and praise
Thy loving and merciful care,
Make our Sabbath a delight,
Rightly spent, as in thy sight!

Our Contributors.

"Thus say that loved the Lord spoke often me to another: and the Lord answered, and said, I, and a host of witnesses, are with you, saying, you be them that loved the Lord, and that thought upon his name."—Mal. 3:16

THE WORK OF THE MINISTER.

BY W. E. W. CURTIS.

"Transcend I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him; if we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: if we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers. Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

Who was so capable of giving the very best instruction to Timothy as was Paul, his father in the gospel? This instruction was to be kept to trust by Timothy, to be committed to faithful men, who should be able to teach others also; and, in this way, it was to be brought down the line, to our time. It was by a miracle that Paul had been called to the apostleship of Jesus Christ, and he became a manly worker for the Master. The light which shined along his pathway from the Source of all light, entered his heart, and converted his understanding. Like Heaven's light, it was inextinguishable. The deepest waters of trouble could not quench it.

A more hearty, persevering, energetic disciple of Jesus Christ than was Paul, has never been

Buchveranzahlung verdreifacht Review und Herald-Verkäufe

George King

strength of which, that makes him willing to suffer the loss of all things for Christ's sake. His character, his life course, must be a living testimony to the faithful improvement of talent received from God. He must have an earnestness and a knowledge in the things of God. His conversation must be in heaven; and while he is engaging in conversation with God, he must hold intercourse with men, and shine as a light in the world.

If we believe not, it will not make of some effect

men, and bring the mind of the minister from the important work of preaching the main truths of the gospel, to settle their disputes. The laborer for God must be wise enough to see the design of the enemy, and to refuse to be misled and diverted. The earnestness of the work of his hearers, must be the burden of his work, and he must keep out of controversy, and preach the word of God.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly